Description
When the application form pop-up is originally displayed, it shows the default error message instead of the loading panel.
Caused by the panel being created too early and being incorrectly updated before an application is selected.

History

#1 - 03/13/2013 07:21 PM - Jennifer Dommer

- % Done changed from 0 to 100
- Status changed from New to Resolved

The panel is now created when an application is selected, not when the workflow interface is created.
